Abengoa Yield announces closing of its $670 million private placement of shares

May 14, 2015 – Abengoa Yield (NASDAQ: ABY), the sustainable total return company that owns a diversified portfolio of contracted assets in the energy and environment sectors, closed today its previously announced $670 million private placement of shares.

Abengoa Yield has issued 20,217,260 new shares at $33.14 per share, which was based on a 3% discount versus the May 7 closing price. Abengoa has subscribed for 51% of the newly-issued shares and will maintain its current stake in Abengoa Yield. The proceeds will be used to finance the previously announced acquisitions, subject to certain customary approvals, from Abengoa of 450 MW in renewable energy assets for $669 million, consisting of Helios (100 MW complex), Solnovas (150 MW complex), the remaining 70% stake in Helioenergy (100 MW complex of which Abengoa Yield already owns a 30% stake), all in Spain, as well as a 51% stake in Kaxu, a 100 MW plant in South Africa. The acquisitions of Helios and Solnovas have already been closed.

The ordinary shares sold in the private placement were offered and sold pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). Such ordinary shares have not been registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to purchase, the ordinary shares in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.
